

Final Project Overview

For my final project I'll be designing a website based off of the study abroad program that I went on in Konstanz, Germany. The city itself has a very interesting history and the program I went on offered a huge variety of opportunities and experiences that I would love to have documented in a website. I was also able to travel to many other countries in Europe and experience a wide variety of different attractions.